

ASIAN WATER DEVELOPMENT OUTLOOK 2020

1.5 billion people living in rural areas & 600 million in urban areas still lack adequate water supply & sanitation. The Asian Water Development Outlook 2020 describes the status of water security in the region, which measures the availability of safe and affordable water supply, sanitation for all, improved livelihoods, and healthy ecosystems, with reduced water-related diseases and floods.

KEY RECOMMENDATIONS

PUT WATER AT THE CENTER OF SUSTAINABLE RURAL DEVELOPMENT.

INVEST IN WATER, SANITATION & DISASTER RISK REDUCTION INFRASTRUCTURE SERVICES IN CITIES, SLUMS & PERIPHERAL AREAS

PROMOTE WATER-EFFECTIVE IRRIGATION AGRICULTURE, COMMUNITY-BASED WATER & SANITATION SERVICES & LOCALLY RESILIENT DISASTER RISK REDUCTION

FOLLOW A GENDER-BASED APPROACH

REDUCE POLLUTION, STIMULATE A CIRCULAR ECONOMY, INCREASE LAND PROTECTION, EMBRACE NATURE-BASED APPROACHES

INCREASE THE RESILIENCE OF WATER SYSTEMS TO AVOID WATER-RELATED DISASTERS & TO BE PREPARED FOR CLIMATE & OTHER GLOBAL CHANGES

To know more, visit www.aciworm.org/awdo/